BALLOTPEDIA
Ballot measures
2022 Elections
2021 Elections
2020 Elections
Reference (2022 elections analysis)
The Basics (Ballot measures)
Government
Politics and policy

Bradley Jones Jr.

Bradley Jones Jr. (Republican Party) is a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives representing the 19th District. He first took office in 2009. His current term ends on January 4, 2023.

Jones (Republican Party) ran for re-election to the Massachusetts House of Representatives in District 19 in the 2020 election. He ran for re-election in District 19 in the general election on November 3, 2020.

Jones currently serves as House minority leader.

Jones's committee assignments are Joint Committee on Transportation, Joint Committee on Public Safety and Homeland Security, and Joint Committee on Ways and Means.

Biography

Jones's professional experience includes, but is not limited to, serving as a state Senate staffer (Senate President Cory Atkins, 2001), and State Senate Minority Leader Brian Lees (1997).

Committee assignments

The committee chairs for the 193rd Legislature (March 2021–January 2023) Massachusetts committees were updated after committee membership. If you would like to send an email to committee members, click here.

2021-2022

Jones was assigned to the following committees:

- Telecommunications, Utilities and Energy Joint Committee

2015 legislative session

At the beginning of the 2015 legislative session, Jones did not serve on a committee.

2013-2014

At the beginning of the 2013 legislative session, Jones did not serve on a committee.

2011-2012

In the 2011-2012 legislative session, Jones did not serve on a committee.

Sponsored legislation

The following table lists bills sponsored by the Massachusetts Bills sponsored by Bradley Jones Jr. Bills sponsored for enactment are highlighted in green. Bills sponsored for comprehensive, 10-year affiliate sponsorship (the process which a bill becomes a law in the state of the senate.

Bills Sponsored By Bradley Jones

HB 4900 - Relative to accessory dwelling units
Further legislation to accessory dwelling units.
Introduced: 2020
10/16/2021 - House concurred
HB 5.041 - To enhance hospital care for those with Prohibiting the use of a hospital patient's medical information for purposes of marketing, sale, or other commercial purposes. Public Health.
10/16/2021 - House concurred
HB 4.040 - Relative to police interactions with pe
Relative to police interactions with people with autism spectrum disorder. Public Safety and Homeland Security.

Elections

2022

See also: Massachusetts House of Representatives elections, 2022

General election

General election for Massachusetts House of Representatives 19th Wilbraham District

Incumbent Bradley Jones Jr. is unopposed in seeking the office. Source: Ballotpedia. Jones is also unopposed in seeking the office. Source: Ballotpedia. Jones is also unopposed in seeking the office. Source: Ballotpedia. Jones is also