Marilyn Slaby is a former Republican member of the Ohio House of Representatives, representing District 38. Slaby was first appointed to the chamber in April 2012. She replaced her husband, Lynn Slaby (R), who left to join the Ohio Public Utilities Commission.[1] Slaby filed for re-election in 2008, but withdrew her candidacy in February 2008.[2]

Slaby previously represented District 41 in the chamber.[3][4] In 2012, she was redistricted into the 38th Ohio House district and won her first full term.[5]

Biography

Slaby earned her B.S. in education from Heidelberg College. Her professional experience includes working as a teacher, as an administrative assistant at the Summit County Board of Elections, and as the owner of two small businesses.[6]

Scorecards

A scorecard evaluates a legislator's voting record. Its purpose is to inform voters about the legislator's political positions. Because scorecards have varying purposes and methodologies, each report should be considered on its own merits. For example, an advocacy group's scorecard may assess a legislator's voting record on one issue while a state chamber of commerce's report may evaluate the voting record in its entirety.

Ballotpedia is in the process of developing an encyclopedic list of published scorecards. Some states have a limited number of scorecards available, while others have a comprehensive list of scorecards. It is Ballotpedia's goal to incorporate all available scorecards regardless of ideology or partisan lean.
