CRIMINAL RECORD AND SANCTIONS:

Criminal proceedings

TASS: on June 19, 1996 Sergei Lisovskiy, together with another member of Yeltsin's election headquarters and Deputy General Director of ORT TV Arkady Yevstafey, was detained by the Presidential Security Service (PSS) at the exit of the Government House. They had a cardboard box made of Xerox paper with over 5500 thousand in it. The money was intended for Yeltsin's election campaign. The detention was ordered by Aleksandr Korzhakov (PSS head) and Mikhail Barsukov (head of the FSB). The next day Korzhakov and Barsukov were retired, Yevstafey and Lisovskiy were released. On July 19, 1996 the Chief Military Prosecutor's Office of Russia initiated a criminal case against them under the article on illegal currency transactions. However, in 1999 the case was closed due to impossibility to identify the owner of the stolen funds.

TASS: In 1998-1999 criminal proceedings were initiated against Sergei Lisovskiy on charges of invasion of privacy and non-payment of taxes in the amount of 240,000 rubles. Proceedings were closed later.
