BALLOTPEDIA
Ballotpedia's Homepage
2020 elections
2019 elections
2018 elections
Ballotpedia's 2022 elections analysis
The Motor Voter Project
Government
Politics
Elections
Ballot measures

Tracking the latest developments in election legislation across all 50 states can seem daunting. The solution: Ballotpedia's Election Administration Legislation Tracker!

Jay Livingstone

Jay Livingstone (Democratic Party) is a member of the Massachusetts House of Representatives, representing the 8th Suffolk District. He assumed office on July 17, 2002. His current term ends on January 2, 2023.

Livingstone (Democratic Party) ran for re-election to the Massachusetts House of Representatives in Massachusetts District 8 in the Democratic primary held on September 8, 2020.

Livingstone was first elected in the June 25, 2002, special election.

Livingstone's term in the 2019-2020 legislative session was dedicated to the First Suffolk & Middlesex District of the Massachusetts State Senate.