SAY HELLO TO AO.
BioNet
Learn more. Get early access. Lock in your name. Join the national debate informed. 50% more. Sign up

Lee Carter (Virginia)

Lee Carter (Democratic Party) serves in the lower house of the Virginia House of Delegates, representing District 67. He first ran for the office in 2017. Carter's term ends in 2021.

Carter (Democratic Party) ran for re-election to the Virginia House of Delegates to represent District 67. He lost in the Democratic primary on June 9, 2021.

Carter was on the ballot for the Governor of Virginia election in June 8, 2021.

Biography

Carter was born in North Carolina. His professional experience includes working in international development. He earned a bachelor's degree.

Committee assignments

The membership information was last updated in March 2020. Ballotpedia's committee pages update at the beginning of each session. If you notice any errors, please contact us at contact@ballotpedia.org.

2020-2021

Carter was assigned to the following committees:

- Appropriations Committee
- Courts of Justice Committee
- Rules Committee
- Transportation Committee

2019-2020

Carter was assigned to the following committees:

- Appropriations Committee
- Mount Rogers Committee

Sponsored legislation

The following bills were introduced in the legislative session(s) in which he/she was elected to the office and served as active member. The following bills that he/she sponsored/cosponsored. To view all the sponsored by this person, click on the legislator's name in the title of the page.

Bills Sponsored by: Lee Carter

HB 2001/SB 1 - Cost-free credits; sunset date.
Provides that the cost-free credits for the Virginia Department of Veterans Services for course of study for Earl Gallegher Employment Enhancement Tax Credit after the year 2021 shall be limited to the cost of such course of study in January 1, 2021. The bill is a recommendation of the Joint Commission on Veterans Affairs.

HB 2002/SB - Probation, revocation, and suspension.
Probation, revocation, and suspension of sentence; limitations. Limits the amount of active incarceration a probationer may be ordered to serve for a violation of a probation condition. The bill provides that if the court

Elections

2021

Governor of Virginia

- See also: Virginia gubernatorial election, 2021
- Virginia Democratic Party primary for Governor of Virginia, primary
- Virginia gubernatorial election, 2021 Bills & Resolutions convention

General election

General election for Governor of Virginia

Results for Governor of Virginia in November 2, 2021.

Candidate	Votes	Percentage
Glenn Youngkin (R) ✓	1,663,064	50.7%
Terry McAuliffe (D)	1,599,736	48.8%
Princess Blanding Lindsey (Party)	23,225	0.7%
Write-ins (Independent) (Write-in) ✓	0	0%
Other Write-in votes	2,003	0.1%
Total votes	3,288,028	100%

Source: Virginia Department of Elections "Unofficial Results" Nov. 3, 2021 Retrieved Nov. 4, 2021

Source: Virginia Department of Elections "Unofficial Results" Nov. 3, 2021 Retrieved Nov. 4, 2021

Withdrawn or disqualified candidates

- Ryan Frazier (Independent)

Democratic primary election

Democratic primary for Governor of Virginia

Results for the Democratic primary for Governor of Virginia, held June 8, 2021. The following candidates advanced to the general election: Terry McAuliffe, Jennifer D. McClellan, Jennifer Carroll Foy, Lee Carter, Alex Ansara, Sergio de la Pena, Hala Ayala, Mark Levine, Kathy Gilbert, Jackson Pamela, Ivan Rabil, Sean Shaw, Alex Bolkhovitinov, Ed Pagano, Tommy Tanner, Gene Rossi, Ed Sheffler, Ed Gillespie, Pete Snyder, Kirk Cox, Peter Doran, Pete Snyder, Kirk Cox, Peter Doran, Pete Snyder, Kirk Cox, Peter Doran