Connie Pillich

Connie Pillich (Democratic Party) was a member of the Ohio House of Representatives, representing District 28. She assumed office in 2009 and left office in December 2, 2018. Pillich (Democratic Party) ran for election to the Hamilton County Commission in Ohio. She lost in the primary election on March 17, 2020.

Pillich is a former Democratic candidate of the Ohio House of Representatives, representing District 28 from 2006 to December 31, 2008.

Pillich was eligible to run for election to the House in 2014, but she ran for state treasurer instead. Connie Pillich lost the general election on November 4, 2014.[1] On March 10, 2012, Pillich was unopposed in the Democratic primary for state treasurer. She was the nominee on February 14, 2012, and endorsed Richard Cordray.[2][3]
