Elizabeth Scott

Elizabeth Scott (Republican) represents the 39th Legislative District, which includes parts of Snohomish, King and Skagit counties. Elected to the House of Representatives in 2012, she is serving her first term.

Elizabeth worked as a teacher at four Washington Community Colleges, and spent time overseas as an English as a Second Language teacher in the Middle East and China.

She is an active youth volunteer, serving as a judge and coordinator at debate tournaments and a past dictionary project coordinator in Snohomish County where she delivered dictionaries to students.

Elizabeth enjoys spending time with her husband and children at home in Monroe.
