BIO:

Zayn al-Abidin Muhammad Husayn (a.k.a. Abu Zubaydah) was born March 12, 1971 in Saudi Arabia. He was captured after cell phone traces and a gun battle in Faisalabad, Pakistan. He now resides at Guantanamo Bay, as perhaps the highest-ranking Al Qaeda leader in US custody. He affiliated with Al Qaeda at its beginning and became bin Laden's second deputy in 1995. He was responsible for planning attacks and screening recruits. While Bin Laden and his first deputy, al-Zawahiri, would set policy, Zubaydah would implement it by selecting targets, personnel, and methods.

Pray that the love of Christ will reach you. And that Holy Spirit will bring change into your heart. — JaneDoe (Feb. 26, 2011 9:44 a.m.)

Lord Jesus, please soften this man's heart that he may know you, accept you and change his evil ways. Let him know that no sin is too great for your forgiveness. Protect that he may share you with others. Praise your holy name! — sooz22 (March 01, 2011 12:50 a.m.)

• Dear Zayn al-Abidin, I speak the Name of Jesus into your heart and mind and soul. I take captive every thought of yours and make them obedient to the Word of God and to the Mind of Christ so that He can and will transform you by the renewing of your mind and establish homeostasis in your body, mind and spirit. Then you may be blessed with great success as you learn to turn your hands to only that which is wholesome and good, obedient to His Will therefore pleasing in His sight. Then may you be prospered in every good way, a way which will glorify His Holy Name. Amen — ginna (Feb. 13, 2019 6:49 a.m.)
