Mario Caterino arrested, he was number two of the Casalesi

by RQuotidiano | MAY 2, 2011

Mario Caterino, arrested in Casal di Principe, had been on the run for three years

The fugitive boss Mario Caterino , considered the number two of the Casalesi Camorra clan, had been wanted for about three years . Caterino was arrested this morning in a house in Casal di Principe by agents of the Caserta Flying Squad coordinated by prosecutors Antonello Ardituro, Giovanni Conzo and Raffaello Falcone of the Dda.

Exponent of the group headed by alboss Francesco Schiavone , nicknamed Sandokan, and currently in prison, Mario Caterino was considered to date the number 2 of the 'cartel' after Michele Zagaria , still a fugitive. Caterino was included in the list of the thirty most dangerous fugitives and was wanted since 2005 for a life sentence. Caterino was in fact held responsible for the De Falco murder, which took place in 1991. Precisely in that period, after the killing of the boss Antonio Bardellino, Caterino assumed a leading position within the clan.

A precautionary custody order was issued against him three years ago, as part of the "Spartacus 3" operation, for Camorra association and extortion. Deputy commissioner Angelo Morabito's men tracked him down in the house of a supporter.
