A special primary election for Louisiana House of Representatives District 82 was called for March 20, 2021. A special general election was scheduled for April 24, 2021. The candidate filing deadline was January 27, 2021.

The seat became vacant after the resignation of Charles Henry (R) on January 12, 2021.[3]

Louisiana elections use the majority-vote system. All candidates compete in the same primary, and a candidate can win the election outright by receiving more than 50 percent of the vote. If no candidate does, the top two vote recipients from the primary advance to the general election, regardless of their partisan affiliation.

Scorecards

A scorecard evaluates a legislator's voting record. Its purpose is to inform voters about the legislator's political positions. Because scorecards have varying purposes and methodologies, each report should be considered on its own merits. For example, an advocacy group's scorecard may assess a legislator's voting record on one issue while a state newspaper's scorecard may evaluate the voting record in its entirety.
