they stop him again

Authorities from the federal, state and municipal governments in Yucatán set up an operation to recapture him with a provisional arrest warrant for extradition purposes.

"El Chelelo" is one of the leaders of the Gulf Cartel who was in Yucatan, a place that is disputed with the organization of the Sinaloa Cartel. He has accusations for the crimes of drug trafficking, disappearance of people, rape, homicide and kidnapping.

Sources close to the process reported that the judge released him a few moments ago, but when he left the oral courts they detained him again, this time for extradition purposes.

It was said that once "El Chelelo" is released, his recapture would be very difficult. The alleged criminal was arrested again upon leaving the Merida Oral Justice Center, on the outskirts of which there is a strong security device. Helicopters from the Attorney General's Office (PGR) with heavily armed elements have arrived at the Mérida airport.

Maximum alert

His transfer from the Mérida prison to the air terminal is planned with military logistics, under strict security measures. Most likely it will take place in the early hours of the morning due to any eventuality that puts citizens at risk.

The Yucatan authorities are on high alert . In the capital and some areas of the State where organized crime cells are known, there is intense surveillance with patrols and armed elements, mainly at the entrances and exits.
